Catering by 116 Pall Mall

The team is constantly striving to improve and enhance both levels of service and facilities

Our new banqueting kitchens enable us to offer plated service, allowing the food to be presented just the way Roger Evans our Head Chef intends it. Tables can be served swiftly and efficiently rather than the old piece meal style of service.

So whatever type of event you are planning, we are sure the combination of the surroundings and support of your personal account executive and our dedicated team will make your event the success that you want it to be.
